Every student, every day, whatever it takes!

"Our deepest fear is not that we are inadequate. Our deepest fear is that we are powerful beyond measure. It is our light, not our darkness that most frightens us...and as we let our own light shine, we unconsciously give other people permission to do the same. As we are liberated from our own fear, our presence automatically liberates others."

Nelson Mandela (Adapted from M. Williamson)

Over the next two weeks, we will celebrate student achievement and success at Burnett's Athletic Banquet and Annual Awards Ceremony. While these ceremonies serve to honor some of our students, they do not adequately recognize the incredible strength exhibited by all of our students throughout this school year.

As individuals, we are powerful beyond measure, often only realizing a fraction of our potential. As learners, many of us, out of fear, tend to set safe expectations rather than exploring our strengths. We develop plans that follow well-traveled paths, limiting expectations to avoid failure. We find the path of least resistance and in doing so, we give up on ourselves before trying.

When learners venture deeper, there is no single reason why they choose the safe path; instead, it is a spectrum. The reason could be the fear of unrealized potential, the fear of falling short, and/or the lack of opportunity to reach their potential. Whatever the reason might be, when learners succumb to their fears, they avoid pursuing their subconscious goals and settle for what is expected of them. It is our light, not our darkness, that most frightens us.

As educators and parents, we focus our efforts on highlighting different paths and shining the light on students and their potential. This encourages and helps students overcome their fears and strive to reach their potential. A student that discovers their path, their light becomes a beacon for other students to follow. They unconsciously become role models. As we liberate ourselves from fear, our presence and our journey automatically liberate others.

Championing Students and Their Learning

Textbook Return: Friday June 16th by 3:20pm.

Teachers Collect Textbooks - please collect and return them all at once. If teachers or students need to keep a textbook until June 23rd, please send an email to Megan (mrither@sd38.bc.ca). Students will not receive their yearbooks until the textbooks are checked-in at the library.
