Welcome to the on-line student planner for Burnett Learning Time.

This site will allow students to sign up for and manage their personalized learning time on Tuesday and Wednesday morning.

Staff and/or Learning Space availability is accurate. If students are unable to book a staff member or learning space at a specific date and time, students are encouraged to sign up for other spaces in the school. Burnett Learning Time is instructional time and all available staff members are able to provide support for student personalized learning in any learning space.
