Introduction to Ironworking

Local 97 will be running a high school "Introduction to Ironworking" Class in Maple Ridge. This is the first week of our 3-week bootcamp that will teach you the basics of the ironworking trade.

Week 1 will be during Spring Break and you can choose which week you would like to attend. This week can be used as school work experience hours. If there is an opportunity for work placement we will reach out to you in June to book you in for Weeks 2 & 3 of the training starting at the end of June after school is over. After successfully completing Week 3 you will receive the required tools and be placed on a job. Starting rate after finishing this class is $25.96/hour plus benefits. After 6 months on the job the union will discuss apprenticeship opportunities. After completing your apprenticeship, you will be a Red Seal Journeyman Ironworker with a wage of $52.45/hour plus benefits. If you are interested in getting into the trade, please contact Cam Heavener at cam@ironworkerslocal97.com.

- Week 1 – you choose the week that works for you
 - Option 1 - March 16th to 20th, 2026
 - Option 2 - March 23rd to 27th, 2026
- Tentatively, Weeks 2 & 3 will take place from June 29th to July 10th, 2026
- No cost to attend the class
- Maximum 12 people will be accepted into each bootcamp
- Class will run Monday to Friday 8am to 4pm

Vancouver International Children's Festival

Application Form - Vancouver International Children's Festival

VICF Volunteer Policies

Thank you for stepping up to join the Children's Festival team! We welcome volunteers of all backgrounds and experiences. We are proud to work with a diverse team. Thank you for considering us.

This application will approximately take 15 minutes. Call or text us at 236-466-1480, or volunteer@childrensfestival.ca if you have questions.

Guidelines

- Volunteers need to be at least 15 years old at the time of their first shift.
- There will be orientation and training on Granville Island before the festival.
- Specialized training for roles such as Hosts, Crew Captains, and Ushers.
- All training mentioned above will count towards volunteer hours.
- Regular volunteers must do 2 shifts minimum
- Hosts must do 2-3 shifts minimum
- Crew Captains must do 4-5 shifts minimum

Benefits

- Free snacks, treats, and bingo sheets at the Volunteer Centre
- Festival Prize draws for each day of the festival, and Grand Prize draw for volunteers who work over 30 hours
- Standby performance pass - present your badge at a venue before a show. If there's still seats, you get priority to watch for free!
- Wristband to the Activity Village for each day you volunteer. Bring a sibling or a friend!
- Festival t-shirt for volunteers who work over 30 hours, or in specific volunteer roles
- Signed Confirmation for the hours you worked
- School Work Experience forms can be filled out if you have worked 24 hours, or as decided by your school
- Reference Letter for volunteers who work 24 or more hours

Conduct and cancellation policy

Unexplained tardiness, absences, and misconduct will be perceived negatively. Repeated actions may result in:

- Having your shift reassigned
- Losing volunteer benefits
- Further action at the VICF Volunteer Team's discretion

If you cannot make a shift which you have confirmed, call or text us at 236-466-1480, or volunteer@childrensfestival.ca. Please inform us of issues to your being able to fulfill/complete a shift.

Final Tips

- Please ensure that volunteer@childrensfestival.ca emails do not go to spam. We communicate with email and phone/text.
- Please register using an email address and phone number that you check and use regularly.
- We offer support for high school students to request time off from school. Ask us for a letter who can show your teacher!
- Our festival happens during peak tourist season - watch for construction, unstable weather, traffic, sinkholes, and more. We are not able to reimburse transportation.

Further in this application process, we will ask you for personal information. This will help us communicate with you and place you in the most appropriate positions. Your personal information and photo will not be displayed publicly, nor will it be reproduced or distributed.

Teen Book Club

Hosted by the Teen Ambassadors

TEENS

ERNEST CLINE

Ready Player One

Sunday, March 8, 2026
Time: 3:30pm-4:30pm
Location: Brighthouse, Kids' Place Program Room
Registration Required. Ages 12-18

Join us at a book club for, created by, and run by teens! Everyone is encouraged to share their thoughts and make connections in an inclusive community for all.

This month, we'll be discussing Ready Player One (book 1) by Ernest Cline. In this fast-paced sci-fi novel, everyone tries to escape their real life by spending most of their time in a virtual reality called the OASIS. When the designer of the virtual reality dies, he leaves behind 3 hidden Easter Eggs and whoever finds it first will inherit his fortune. Main character Wade Watts, dives into this treasure hunt through epic puzzles and '80s pop culture in this non-stop adventure.

During the program, we'll have:

- Discussion about the book in a friendly, low-pressure environment
- Games and activities like trivia games. And snacks

The program is created and led by the Teen Ambassadors.
